La Follette Denounces Seating T. H. Newberry

WISCONSIN SENATOR THREATENS TO SEEK TO REOPEN CASE AS HE DID ONCE BEFORE

Michigan Scandal Declared to be Worse Than Lorimer
Case

IS CALLED A BLOW AT POPULAR GOVERNMENT

Democrats Vote Solidly to Unseat Newberry With Nine Republicans

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Senator La Follette, progressive Republican of Wisconsin, threatened to take the same stand relative to the status of Truman H. Newberry, Republican, of Michigan, that he took in the case of former Senator Lorimer, Republican, of Illinois.

Newberry was seated by a vote of 46 to 41 last night. Lorimer was seated by a vote of 46 to 40 on March 1, 1911. Lorimer was unseated after La Follette forced the reopening of his case by a vote of 55 to 28 on July 15, 1912.

La Follette recalled these facts in denouncing the Newberry case as "far worse" than the Lorimer case.

"With a full knowledge of the Newberry case and of the issue presented to the senate, I assert without hesitation that the corrupt methods and practices revealed in the Michigan primary of 1918 which resulted in Newberry's nomination are infinitely more reprehensible and were far more injurious to popular government than were those employed in behalf of the election of Lorimer.

"I assert that the personal knowledge and guilt of Newberry has been established more conclusively than were the personal knowledge and guilt of Lorimer. I believe Lorimer would be today more entitled to a seat in the senate than is Newberry," La Follette said.

The vote follows:

For: Republicans—Ball Brandegee, Bursum, Calder, Cameron, Colt, Cummins, Curtis, Dillingham, Edge, Elk-huysen, Gooding, Hale, Herrell, Kellogg, Keyes, Lenroot, Lodge, Mc-Cormick, McComber, McKinley, Mc-Lean, McNary, Nelson, New, Nicholson Oldie, Page, Pepper, Phipps, Pointer, Shortridge, Smoot, Spencer, Standfield, Sterling, Townsend, Wadsworth, Warren, Watson (Indiana), Weller and Willis. Total, 46.

Against: Republicans—Borah, Capper, Jones of Washington, Kenyon, Ladd, La Follette, Norbeck, Norris and Sutherland. Total, 9; Democrats—Ashurst, Broussard, Caraway, Culbertson, Dial, Fletcher, Gerry, Glass, Harris, Harrison, Hefflin, Hitchcock, Jones of New Mexico, King, Mc-Kellar, Myers, Overman, Owen, Pittman, Pomerene, Ransdell, Robinson, Sheppard, Shields, Simmons, Smith, Swanson, Trammell, Underwood, Walsh (Massachusetts), Walsh (Montana) and Williams. Total, 32.

Senators were paired as follows:
Republicans, Crow of Pennsylvania, DuPont of Delaware and Moses of New Hampshire being paired for Senator Newberry, with Senators Kendrick of Wyoming, Stanley of Kentucky and Reed of Missouri against.

Senators absent and not voting were: Senator Newberry, Johnson of California, Republicans, and Watson, Democrat, Georgia.

Handless and Blind Veteran Works Typewriter

"Where there's a will there's a way," says Carl Bronner, a disabled veteran of the late war, who is minus both his hands and the sight of both eyes; yet, despite this great handicap, Bronner can work a typewriter. He is shown here demonstrating his ability to General Sawyer, the President's physician. Bronner was a seaman, stationed in Italian waters, during the war and is now at the Evergreen Hospital for the Blind, in Baltimore, Md.
He is attending the conference on the rehabilitation of disabled soldiers being held at the Veterans' Bureau at Washington.

COL. BIBB GRAVES ENTERS NAME IN GOVERNOR'S RACE

(Montgomery Bureau, Albany-Decatur Daily)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 13.— Col. Bibb Graves, of Montgomery, will be a candidate for governor in the Democratic primary August 8. He made this positive statement late Thursday night on the eve of the meeting of the state Democratic executive committee for the purpose of providing for the primary.

Col. Graves did not announce but did announce that at the opening of the campaign he would become a candidate. In his formal statement he set forth a declaration of principles, chief among them being a reduction of taxation by the abolition of the tax adjusters and the placing of duty of equalizing taxes on elective officials, the abolition of the state board of control, the discontinuance of all exemptions except to churches, grave yards, schools and charitable institutions, the adjustment of freight and passenger rates, the calling of a state Democratic convention for the purpose of writing a Democratic platform, an equitable apportionment of a liberal appropriation for public education, the bringing of pressure on the national government for an ex-service men's bonus, the proper support of the health and child welfare departments and the maintenance of all prohibition laws now on the statute books.

Another plank about which Col.
Graves said little of the much that could be said was the maintenance of an American Sunday. He said he would prevent its being commercialized by amusements run for money.
He also favored the equalization of the effect of all laws in order that voters, men and women, might have the same opportunities of participating in affairs of government.

Referring to highway construction, Col. Graves said he was for the bond issue which will be submitted January 30 and if elected governor would see that the pledges now being made would be carried out to the letter.

On labor, Col. Graves said he was for the open shop, "open to all men, union men and non-union men" and favorable to the maintenance of a free-trade.

RAYMOND POINCAIRE ENGAGED IN EFFORT TO FORM MINISTRY TO SUCCEED BRIAND

Two Ministers of Old Cabinet Are Expected to be Retained

STRICT ACCOUNTABILITY
BY GERMANS DEMANDED

Press and Political Circles Welcome Former President's Return to Office

(International News Service)

PARIS, Jan. 13.—Raymond Poincaire, former president of France, who was designated by President Millerand to form a cabinet to succeed the resigned Briand ministry, was engaged today in an effort to create a strong nationalist government which will exercise a policy of utmost sternness toward Germany.

It was understood the Premier designated plans to retain two ex-ministers, one of whom is Minister of Colonies Sarraut, acting head of the French delegation in the Washington conference. M. Poincaire has been one of the most consistent leaders of the French political faction demanding:

1. Strict execution of every clause of the Versailles treaty and subsidiary documents by Germany.
2. Further military occupation of Germany if the Berlin government defaults in its indemnity obligations.
3. A receivership for Germany with an allied control commission in Berlin if Germany fails to meet the indemnity payments due this month and next.
4. A close alliance between France and Poland.
5. Refusal by France to recognize the Moscow Soviet government unless it promises to pay all Russia's foreign debts and make other concessions.

The press and political circles generally expressed the regret over the resignation of Briand, but welcomed with approval the selection of Poincaire. It is felt in many quarters that the resignation of Briand came at a most inopportune time in view of the fact that Germany has announced she cannot pay the $120,000,000 indemnity installment due Sunday.

TO BUILD BUNGALOW

Dr. R. M. McGlathery has purchased tract at once for the erection of a six room bungalow to cost $6,000.

imperative that the poll tax be paid. Lose no time in attending to this most important matter.

Ford Flashes

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Henry Ford today snapped his fingers in the face of superstition and defied Friday, the thirteenth, to "do its durndest" when he entered into the most important conference yet held between Ford and Secretary of War Weeks concerning Ford's offer to take over and operate the Muscle Shoals property.

"Nothing superstitious about me," replied Ford when a correspondent jokingly remarked about the incident.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Henry Ford either is going to buy a whole navy or none at all. Here today for a conference with government officials over Muscle Shoals, Ford revealed for the first time that his offer recently made through an International News Service interview to buy and scrap the world navies had been taken up in part. A French official, presumably attached to the ministry of marines, cabled Ford asking how much he would bid for scrap iron from a number of ships the French are junking as obsolete.

Ford replied by cable: "Unless I can buy your whole navy and scrap it, I am not interested in it."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—"The senate has had its say with regard to the Newberry case. The people's say upon if the plan is turned over to him. This questionnaire, it is understood, will form the basis for today's conference."

Whatever be the result of today's meeting the deal can hardly be closed today, officials said, because the government must await the receipt of a new offer from C. C. Tinkler, of San Francisco, who made a tentative offer earlier in the week and then withdrew it in order to change it at the suggestion of Secretary Weeks.

Prior to the conference Ford conferred with a number of Alabama members of congress, including Senator Hefflin.

Ford Hopeful

"I am hopeful of concluding my argument for the purchase of the Muscle Shoals project at today's conference with the Secretary of War," Henry Ford informed the International News Service this afternoon.

Ford said he did not think it advisable to comment on his offer or any modification he may or may not make in his conference conversation with Secretary Weeks today. He inferred that today's session will be the final meeting, saying that his engineers had prepared the way for this meeting during the past two weeks.

"I intend to make the Muscle Shoals project an object lesson to the people and the government agents of the United States. When it has been seen what unbounded benefit shall result from this project, I shall be in a position to expand my activities along the same line, centering them on the development of the almost limitless resources that now lie almost dormant in the Mississippi valley."

"There is enough unharvested power in the Mississippi to run the United States. The Mississippi is the greatest natural object of waste in the world. It is the greatest potential power source in the United States.
I have had my interest centered on its possibility for a long time."

Waste in Mississippi

"For example, one of the phases of possibility which lie in the development of the Mississippi, millions of tons of fertilizer are dumped into the Gulf of Mexico every year, borne down from the highlands, an utter waste."

"Twenty dams erected on the Mississippi would save this waste. Twenty dams on the Mississippi would revolutionize the transportation conditions in the South. Construction of such hand to register; this too is very necessary in order to be able to vote in the elections of this year.

Those who come within the law applying to registration of voters, should see to it that you are duly registered, otherwise, although you may have paid the poll tax, you will be barred from casting your vote in the elections of this year."

The list of appointments of the county registrars appear in today's issue of The Daily, and it would be well to look up the advertisement and familiarize oneself with the list. Do it now.

ALABAMA PROJECT ONLY START OF GREAT WATERPOWER PLAN

Ford Would Harness Potential Power of the Entire Mississippi Valley If His Shoals Operation Proves Very Successful

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Henry Ford arrived in Washington this morning to resume his negotiations with the government over the proposed sale of the great Muscle Shoals nitrate plant in Alabama.

Accompanied by his engineers who have made a thorough survey of the uncompleted project, Ford will confer with Secretary Weeks late today in an effort to reconcile the differences that admittedly exist between his offer and what the government considers adequate guarantees.

Ford's engineers estimate it will take $28,000,000 to complete the project, while the army engineers estimate that anywhere from $35,000,000 to $49,000,000 will be required. Secretary Weeks has prepared a questionnaire for Ford, setting forth the conditions the government will insist upon if the plant is turned over to him. This questionnaire, it is under-
conference.

Believes in Currency

"I have not yet given up the hope that I shall be able to convince the administration that this currency issue plan is feasible in the financing of the Muscle Shoals project. My plan is simple. The government could issue currency in place of bonds to build the dam. The currency would stay in circulation. There would be no taxation. The government could do the construction work with this currency issue and could secure revenue after the construction of the dam by selling power."

"I intend to prove to the senators and to the proper governmental officials that this is reasonable and profitable to the government and to the people as well. Millions of dollars are lost in the Mississippi valley each year due to floods. Twenty such dams as I propose to erect would prevent floods.
This again is but an item in the great advantage that may be reaped from the project. I will discuss it at a later date and at greater length, as I first wish to prove that the Muscle Shoals project is to be the success I intend to make it."

"I shall have no trouble in convincing officials of the great power that lies within their grasp through the erection of dams on the Mississippi, when they have seen what the development of the Muscle Shoals project means to them and to the people."

"Now if we can not show the government it will cost them nothing to build the Muscle Shoals project we do not want the project. That is my answer to these propagandists, fertilizer and waterpower interests, who are seeking to prevent my getting Muscle Shoals. If only these fertilizer people could see that the plan is to their own benefit in reducing costs to them eventually, they would not campaign against my purchase of the project. After all, as things stand, you can't blame the fertilizer people for agitating against the project for they will have to be educated."

Costs U. S. Nothing

"Money derived by the government from selling power in the Mississippi valley would be sufficient to provide the funds necessary to operate all other power plants within the limits of the nation. Harnessing the Mississippi's power is the key to power control throughout the length and breadth of the land. The scheme is so simple and yet so overwhelmingly titanic

LET'S FEED OURSELVES

At a turkey dinner given by one of the banking institutions of this county recently, it was necessary to send to Tennessee for the turkeys. This emphasizes the fact that right here at home there is always a fine demand for this popular bird that invariably brings a good price per pound. There are several turkey raisers in the county, and they annually raise good flocks of them that are easily disposed of.

The idea is to raise more of them. If every farm house boasted the ownership of some turkeys, it would bring in a revenue that would greatly augment the other crops, and prove of great value.

Le. Morgan county raise more turkeys this year than ever before, and more poultry as well.

One of the Birmingham dailies recently carried the announcement that there was annually shipped to that market thousands of pounds of poultry and eggs from Tennessee and Mississippi in order to meet the demands of the consumers of that city. Now the question is, and a pertinent one, why can't Alabama raise enough poultry and gather enough eggs to take care of the demands of these products within her own domain.

MR. WILSON'S CONFIDENCE IN COMING DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS

The Washington Star speaks of Mr. Wilson's supreme confidence in the ability of the Democratic party to restore itself in power, and wonders what the explanation is. The Washington paper says Mr. Wilson is in a buoyant mood. That, in replying recently to some friendly salutations from Missouri, he predicted Democratic success this year and in 1924 and that later he has replied to some friendly salutations from the Women's Democratic political league in these terms: "The message from the Woman's Democratic Political League gave me very great pleasure, and I wish to express to you—and through you to your associates of the league—my heartfelt thanks for the cheer it has given me, together with my best wishes for the new year—which is certain to show that the Democratic party has entirely regained the confidence of the nation."

The Washington Star is surprised at Mr. Wilson's confidence and asks:

The Washington Star is surprised at Mr. Wilson's confidence and asks:

"What has happened in the twelve months since the fact was recorded at the polls that the Democratic party had lost the confidence of the nation? The Republicans have taken charge and for ten months have been occupied with plans for redeeming their campaign promises and clearing a path to normalcy. They have not made brilliant progress, but have developed divisions in congress and out. Is it Mr. Wilson's idea that those divisions cannot be healed? That on the contrary, they will widen and deepen, and by November engulf the party in power? Does his supreme confidence rest upon that calculation?"

Probably The Star has "hit the nail upon the head." Republican failures, the blunders of Republican leaders, the diminished confidence that even Republicans have in the ability of Mr. Harding to "make good," all are having the effect of discrediting the party in power.

On the other hand, the Democratic party has not altered its course one jot. It now is advocating the very things it advocated in the latest campaign. It today stands for the principles Mr. Wilson enunciated in his own campaigns and afterwards when the destinies of the world rested upon the course this country would take in the great struggle overseas, and in the settlement of the tangled affairs of the old world.

The Democratic party has not changed and the Republican party has changed. That explains the whole thing and that doubtless accounts for the confidence of Mr. Wilson and of the Democratic leaders generally.

This year the Republicans probably will realize that the country has not been fooled by the tactics of the Republican party and its leaders, and the realization may bring grief to Republican hopes.—Anniston Star.

YOU BET YOUR LIFE

Any Grand Army man can recall the days when life insurance was looked upon with more or less disfavor, being regarded by conservative people as a form of gambling. Today, churches are insured against fire, and ministers have been known to insure their voices. Life insurance is regarded not as a wager with death, but an antidote for the financial consequences of death. Society accepts the theory that a bread-winner's responsibilities do not end with his life. Rich and poor alike accept life insurance as a means of meeting their posthumous responsibility.

That is one reason why War Risk Insurance was invented; so soldiers and sailors could be assured that financial hardship back home would be alleviated in the event of death.

But War Term Insurance, as originally conceived and as it exists today, is but a makeshift—a stop-gap to cover the periods of war and reconstruction. Payments are rated according to statistical tables. The amount of your insurance is divided by the years you can be expected to live, allowances are made for accrued interest during that period, and a rate is arrived at which is payable in monthly installments. Such insurance is practically a wager. Every month you bet the Government between sixty-four and seventy-four cents to a thousand dollars that you will be alive next month. As you grow older the rate is increased, and four years from now, unless you convert your War Term Insurance to a policy conforming to the standards of private insurance companies, your protection will automatically end.

Uncle Sam now offers you a chance to maintain the insurance of war times on a peace basis. You can convert your policy from an out-and-out wager to a kind of savings certificate, for which you pay on the installment plan. Uncle Sam will take monthly payments for the next twenty years and reimburse you at the end of that time, with generous interest, accepting the responsibility of paying your relatives the full amount of your policy if you die before that time. Or he will accept smaller monthly payments under other arrangements, so that your payments will stop in twenty or thirty years, at the age of sixty-two or at death. In any event, unless you take a straight life policy and set out after Methuselah's longevity record, you cannot lose.

In another part of this magazine, under the title, "How Long Do You Expect to Live?" is some rather startling information. We learn that fewer than 325,000 ex-service men and women have converted their war-time insurance, and that only about 600,000 retain even that form of insurance. Which only means that nearly four million people are overlooking a sure thing.—American Legion Weekly.

If advertising is not always profitable, why do the largest concerns of the country on beginning business, and after years of catering to the trade, annually set aside a certain sum to be expended toward this best of all business getters?

The more we think of life in the abstract more appears that it is a place of activity filled with tremendous responsibility, and not the least of the requirements is, that we leave it a better place than we found it. What we say and what we do counts much in the final analysis.

There is a thing that seemeth right, etc., or something like that, and right there is where many a fellow gets in the dumps, but that seemeth.

To the people: Massage your hands and get ready for the period of handshaking that always goes hand in glove with election year.

As the rose unfolds its petals to receive the morning dew, so young minds unfold to receive the instruction imparted; let it be of the very best.

If Henry Ford is so successful as to get possession of Muscle Shoals, the initials U. H. F. will become as well known as U. S. The first meaning, Uncle Henry Ford, because everybody will be so delighted that they will want to claim kin with him.

Life Sentence is Affirmed by Court

(Montgomery Bureau, Albany-Decatur Daily)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 13.—Emory Smith, of Jefferson county, who was given a death sentence in one case and a life sentence in another for highway robbery, is certain now that he will spend the remainder of his days in prison. The supreme court Thursday affirmed the judgment of the jury in the case in which the life sentence was imposed.

No decision has been rendered in the case in which the death sentence was imposed. Smith is yet to learn whether his days in prison are numbered. In the life sentence case he was convicted of the robbery on the public highway of Bascom T. McHenry. No bill of exceptions was filed for Smith and the supreme court, in affirming the lower court, said no error could be found in the record.

Salary Fixed by Supreme Court

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 13.—The constitutional amendment adopted in 1912 which provided that officials of Jefferson county could be placed on salaries instead of fees does not prohibit the legislature from enacting laws which will give the officials additional fees, according to a decision of the supreme court rendered Thursday in the case of William J. Waldrop, circuit clerk of Jefferson county, versus M. V. Henry, treasurer of Jefferson county. The legislature may provide a specific salary for any Jefferson county official and by subsequent legislation may provide additional fees, under the decision.

The question came up as a result of the collection by Mr. Waldrop of $1,050 as fees for services in handling dog tax licenses of Jefferson county. After the money had been paid to Mr. Waldrop, Mr. Henry brought suit to recover it for the benefit of the treasury of Jefferson county, contending that all fees should go into the county treasury. Mr. Waldrop insisted that he was entitled to the fees because he was forced to employ extra assistance in handling the dog tax licenses.

The lower court gave a judgment in favor of the treasurer for the full amount collected by Mr. Waldrop. The supreme court not only reversed the decision of the lower court but rendered one in favor of the circuit clerk, holding that regardless of whether or not he was forced to employ extra assistance he was entitled to such additional fees for the additional service as the legislature might provide.

Use Dainty Flour and avoid failures

Valier's Dainty costs a little more than ordinary flour because it is milled from better wheat—and good wheat is scarce this year.

An untimely freeze last spring and showers during the late harvest damaged much of the crop. Quantities of it got weevily and musty. Hardly one car in a hundred that now comes to market is good enough to mill into Dainty.

But we got our wheat early before the showers began. It is choice, prime, soft winter wheat in perfect condition. It cost a big premium, but we got it. Only good wheat will mill into good flour, and we will not lower the quality of Dainty.

You can depend on Dainty for fine, even-textured, full-flavored baking. It will never cause a failure. Your grocer carries Dainty—ask him for a sack—it costs much less than it did last year.

LAKE PLACID THE MECCA FOR WINTER SPORTS FOLK

The season at Lake Placid, New York, is now on in full swing. Many of the visitors here have in former years gone to Switzerland for the winter sports, but now they claim they find all the sports they want at this resort. People from all over the country are making Lake Placid their winter Mecca. The above illustration shows some of the fair participants enjoying themselves. In the lower left-hand corner is Miss Kathleen Davis, of Galveston, Texas, adjusting her skates, preliminary to taking a spin over the ice. Above her is Miss Helen Kosloff, of Warsaw, Poland, who spends many hours entertaining her friends with exhibitions of figure skating. In the center are members of the younger set off on the scene in the Hare and Hounds Sledging Tourney, and on the right is Miss Marie Ringler, of New York, an ardent hockey enthusiast.

Wouldn't Exchange With Millionaire

"After five years of suffering with stomach trouble I think I know all about it. But thanks to Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, I am enjoying good health again. I know of a millionaire who is very bad with stomach trouble, but he won't take any patent medicine. In his present condition I wouldn't exchange with him." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—adv.

Carolina Lady Got So She Could Just Drag.—"Cardui Built Me Up," She Declares.

Kernersville, N. C.—In an interesting statement regarding Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Mrs. Wesley Mabe, of near here, recently said: "I have known Cardui for years, but never knew its worth until a year or so ago. I was in a weakened, run-down condition. I became draggy—didn't eat or sleep to do any good; couldn't do anything without a great effort. I tried different remedies and medicines, yet I continued to drag.

"I decided to give Cardui a trial, and found it was just what I really needed. It made me feel much stronger soon after I began to use it. I began to eat more, and the nervous, weak feeling began to leave. Soon I was sleeping good.

"Cardui built me up as no other tonic ever did.

"I used Cardui with one daughter who was puny, felt bad and tired out all the time. It brought her right out, and soon she was as well as a girl could be. We think there is nothing like Cardui."

Do not allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. You may find it just what you really need. For more than 40 years it has been used by thousands and thousands, and found just as Mrs. Mabe describes.

Listens Here to Opera Concerts in Pittsburg, Pa.

Sitting in Albany and listening to an opera in Pittsburg is the novel experience of William Hocken-smith, who has erected a wireless telephone here. On Sunday evenings he listens to a sermon by a Pittsburg minister and on ordinary occasions he "takes" news stories from New York and other sending centers.

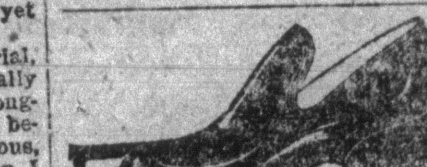

Here is the story he received last night: "By wireless telephone, New York, January 12.—Mr. Roald Amundson, the man who discovered the South Pole, will leave soon on an expedition that will carry him into all parts of the arctic circle. Mr. Amundson is making this exploration in the hope of securing scientific data that will lead to the forecast of storms for a long time before hand.

"He hopes to find where the weather comes from."

SENATOR SPEAKS FOR BOND ISSUE

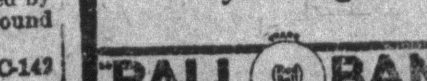

State Senator John Rogers, of Sumter county, will speak in the interest of the good roads bond issue at Hartselle Saturday at one o'clock. Senator Rogers is a member of the state highway commission, and is thoroughly posted on every phase of this great issue. He should be accorded a large crowd, as this is an opportunity to hear the issue discussed by one of its ablest exponent.

The senator will also address the citizens of the Twin Cities at the Albany chamber of commerce rooms Saturday at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to both men and women to come and hear this able orator.

Wow! Watch Your Step, Your Purse; Keep an Eye on Your Neighbor Also; It's Friday and the Thirteenth Too

If you have managed to live thus far through the cumulative ills due to happen today, it might be well to take a look at the calendar and remind yourself that this is Friday—and it's the 13th, too.

However superstitious you may be, there are a few in this old world who haven't let the calendar do a thing to them.

dem for all men, a freedom which would permit bargaining either individually or collectively.

Col. Graves closed his statement with an appeal to the people, if they place the duties of the governorship upon him, also to give him a legislative which would aid him in carrying out the policies which he outlined. He further said he would ask for a platform founded upon his principles if a state convention be called.

Col. Graves' announcement caused much surprise. It had been reported for many months that he would be a candidate, but time passed and not a word came from him. His friends during the week revived the report, but there had been no intimation that he would get into the contest on the evening preceding the meeting of the Democratic committee.

A Kentucky Race Horse

A Piggly Wiggly license from Kentucky a few days ago sized the proposition up as follows:

"I have owned horses and I have raced horses and I know that if two horses of about equal speed are entered in a race and one carries 128 pounds and the other 98 pounds, then the horse with 98 pounds up is sure to win."

In the retail distribution of food products there are certain costs which must be added for which the consumer must pay. None of these costs add to the intrinsic merit of the products.

The system, which can eliminate some of these costs and lessen others, can and does give better values.

The Piggly Wiggly system eliminates certain costs and lessens others, therefore, it can and does give the public greatest values.

The system whose overhead is less than six per cent can give a larger value than the system whose overhead expense is from fifteen to twenty-five per cent.

The trial required more than two days and attracted considerable interest on the account of the amount involved and the prominence of the parties concerned.

Legion Endorses Roads Bond Issue

Resolutions endorsing the good roads bond issue, to be voted on January 30, were adopted last night by the Morgan County Post of the American Legion at its regular meeting. The Post decided to meet every Thursday night, instead of on alternate Thursday nights. This arrangement, it is expected, will create much more interest in the activities of the organization. A committee, composed of Post Commander Roy Billings and Finance Officer Joseph Woods, has been appointed to meet with the Albany chamber of commerce in regard to the club rooms now sought by the Post.

A collection of dues was taken during the business session and other routine business attended to. The subject for the day was "Lee's Birthday," Mrs. Louis Hobart having a very instructive paper entitled "Lee as a Scholar, Soldier, Citizen and President." Another interesting number of the literary program was the reading, "Wearing of the Gray" by Miss Unity Daney.

A social hour followed when a salad course was served.

The meeting of the Saturday Club will be postponed from Saturday afternoon, January 15, until Saturday afternoon, January 22nd, with Mrs. Earl Calvin as hostess.

SECOND MISTRIAL PREDICTED AGAIN IN LANCASTER TRIAL

(International News Service)
HAMILTON, Ala., Jan. 13—Conflicting testimony that has been introduced during the past week by state and defense witnesses will result in a second mistrial of the case of Sergeant Robert Lancaster, Alabama guardsman, charged with murder in connection with the lynching of Will Baird, a miner, at Jasper, Ala., last January, according to predictions made in legal circles here today.

The array of damaging testimony that was introduced against the accused soldier by state witnesses during the first two days of the trial has been torn down by a counter attack through testimony introduced by defense witnesses and has resulted in the prediction that the case will be brought to a halt by a hung jury.

Attorneys for Lancaster, prior to closing their case this morning, called other former members of Company M to the stand in an effort to further substantiate the stories told by other witnesses and Lancaster himself that he was in the barracks from midnight until dawn on the night Baird was lynched.

Following the introduction of these witnesses the defense closed its case. Introduction of rebuttal testimony immediately was begun by state attorneys and followed by the defense.

Final arguments to the jury were begun at 11 o'clock by Solicitor Horace Wilkinson. By agreement of both factions, Judge Gamble has limited argument to three hours on each side. This procedure will consume the balance of the day.

In conformity with this ruling it is expected that the case will go to the jury about six o'clock tonight.

C. OF C. TO HOLD IMPORTANT MEET.

The Albany chamber of commerce will hold an important meeting tonight when a supper will be served to all members of the organization. It is the first meeting under the leadership of the new administration and there will be a general discussion of plans for city building during the current year. The presence of every member was urged at tonight's session.

First Snow of the Season is Here

STATE COMMITTEE IS MEETING FRIDAY; TWO TICKETS SURE

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 13—Berrien T. Phillips, of Opelika, state senator of Lee and Russell counties, will announce for lieutenant-governor, probably today. Following the announcement of Bibb Graves for governor last night, Mr. Phillips announced he would be in the race. This puts two tickets in the field and ends the reports that Judge W. W. Brannen would be governor and Senator Charles McDowell, lieutenant governor, without opposition.

Reports today were general that Henry F. Lee, formerly secretary of the state tax commission, will be a candidate for associate member of the public service commission.

The state Democratic executive committee will meet at one o'clock to plan for the state primary. James H. Webb, of Mobile, is unopposed for chairman, succeeding W. D. Nesbitt, resigned.

Women voters will appeal for equal representation on the committee, but have announced they will not make a personal fight. Every indication is the committee will exclude from the primary all who voted against Democratic candidates in the last general election. Opponents of the convention plan for nominating the appellate court judges today claimed the committee would refuse to accept the recommendation of the executive committee of the bar association.

Rheumatism at 60

S. S. S. Thoroughly Rids the Body of Rheumatism Impurities.

Somebody's mother is suffering tonight! The scourge of rheumatism has wrecked her body; limping and suffering, bent forward, she sees but the common ground, but her aged heart still belongs to the stars! Does anybody care? S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-purifiers known, and it helps build more blood cells. Its medicinal ingredients are purely vegetable. It never discolors the stomach. It is, in fact, a splendid tonic, a blood maker, a blood enricher. It banishes rheumatism from joints, muscles and the entire body. It builds firm flesh. It is what somebody's mother needs tonight! Mother, if you can not go out to get a bottle of S. S. S. yourself, surely somebody in your family will. Somebody, get a bottle of S. S. S. now! Let somebody's mother begin to feel joyful again tonight. Maybe, maybe it's your mother! S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

How glorious you will feel, mother, when your rheumatism is all gone. Let S. S. S. do it. It will build you up, too!

Alabama Courier Pays Tribute to Wm. E. Crawford

Postmaster W. E. Crawford, of Decatur, was over visiting his mother and sisters Monday afternoon and shaking hands with a host of former old friends. Born and reared in this county, he has a wide circle of friends here who have watched with pleasure his career in life. He has made good by his own efforts and is closing eight years of service as postmaster at his town and a service that reflects credit on him as a business man and as an official. His friends enjoyed his short visit. —Alabama Courier.

Neglecting That Cold or Cough?

Letting the old cough or cold drag on, or the new one develop seriously, is folly, especially when at your druggists, you can get such a proved and successful remedy as Dr. King's New Discovery. No drugs, just good medicine that relieves quickly.

Curio Room Proves Interesting Place

That necessity is the mother of invention is brought forcibly to mind when one views the many crude articles that are in the curio room connected with the sheriff's office. Most every conceivable kind of crudely constructed devices are displayed, the product of those who have been engaged in illicit distilling, and fell into the hands of the sheriff forces on the different raids conducted by them.

There are oddly shaped pipes wrapped with rags to keep the fluid from escaping while being conveyed to containers. Then there is an oddly constructed instrument that was employed by the "catters" to stir the mash while the boiling process is on. There is still another one that was constructed from a hickory pole, through which an opening had been made by the boring of a large hole parallel through it, this instrument, it was explained, was used on the cap of the still. Lard cans, oil cans, wash pots and most everything else that will hold liquid is captured while on these raids, showing conclusively that the illicit manufacturer must get his articles on the run and not be very choice of the quality.

Will Receive Bids For Pike Repairs

Considering of bids for the reconstruction of the pike leading east from Hartselle, will be received by the board of revenue at a special session next Tuesday, January 17th. At this time the contract will probably be let, and in all probability there will be several bidders for the work.

Four Buildings Will be Erected

The letting of a contract for four buildings let by T. M. Covey and son to C. H. Gray, contractor, involving the expenditure of $19,000, became known today. The two buildings at 4th street and 8th avenue will be of brick. The other two will be frame dwellings and will be erected in West-town.

GOOD ROADS DAY WILL BE OBSERVED

(Montgomery Bureau, Albany, Decatur Daily)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 13.—Dr. John W. Abercrombie, state superintendent of education, has called upon public school officials to plan for a general observance of good roads day which has been designated for Friday, January 20, by the state department of education. Letters requesting the co-operation of all school officials were mailed out by Dr. Abercrombie today.

Good roads day will be observed just ten days before the voters of Alabama will decide, January 30, whether or not they favor a bond issue of $25,000,000 dollars for the construction of a system of permanent roads. A special program will be arranged in the public schools with the view of showing how schools will be benefited by the roads.

"The value of adequately improved highways cannot be measured," said Dr. Abercrombie's letter. "It is at once economic, social and religious. It is also educational, vitally educational. The consolidation of schools and the transportation of pupils, the enrollment and attendance of pupils, the organization of classes and the efficiency of teachers, the co-operation of parents and the progress of pupils, the use of the schools as community centers, all depend upon the condition of the public roads. Good roads and good schools go hand in hand. Without the best of roads the best of schools is impossible. These are matters of common knowledge."

The Modern Mother

faces problems far beyond those of her forbears. She herself must be a much more competent person, combining in one individual the duties of nurse, cook, teacher and moral instructor. It is no wonder that many conscientious women break under the strain, and that others drag out a miserable existence, always tired, and yet unable to take a day's vacation. Such women will find themselves benefited and their burdens made easier by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which was made for suffering women, and does not fail to relieve them.—adv.
